

Georgia Chapter of NATP

The Georgia Chapter received its charter in 1994 and has been providing an array of high quality education at an affordable price ever since.

The active directors serving the chapter have a dedication to provide the "Best for Less- The Best Education for Less Cost".

The National Association of Tax Professionals (NATP) is a nonprofit professional association founded in 1979 to serve professionals working in all areas of tax practice through professional education, tax research, and products. Members include individual practitioners, Enrolled Agents, Accountants, Certified Public Accountants, Attorneys, Certified Financial Planners and Registered Tax Preparers.

Georgia NATP 2012 Annual Conference - Dillard, Georgia September 23 thru 25, 2012

Our 2012 Annual Conference will provide general sessions for all attendees as well as breakout sessions giving you an opportunity to structure education topics in accordance with your individual needs. Dale Boushley, EA, CFP, owner of Financial Resource Management, Inc. will be with us this fall, presenting an array of exciting and insightful classes.

Georgia Department of Revenue

The new Georgia State Revenue Commissioner, Douglas J. MacGinnitie, will speak at this year's State Conference. Commissioner MacGinnitie was appointed in January by Governor Nathan Deal. This will be your first opportunity to hear him speak about his plans for the future direction of the Georgia Department of Revenue

Silent Auction

We will again have the silent auction and other fun events where the proceeds will help to fund the "Sam Grubbs Memorial Scholarship Fund". Get ready to outbid your neighbor to get your favorite items!
